MODERN FOLK EMBROIDERY

One Biscornu Freebie

York, January 12th 2020

Thank you so much for being a part of my newsletter, and for being a part of Modern Folk! Nine years ago this month I opened my little online shop, and I couldn't have known back then the amount of lovely people I've met on the way! I really appreciate your support that you've given me over these years - and as a small thank-you to you, here's a free chart for all the members of my email newsletter.

This is one of 8 new patterns bundled together in a booklet called "eight biscornu designs". The design here is number one.

TECHNICAL DETAILS:

This design measures 87 crosses in width and height. Stitched over two threads on 32 count linen (or 16 count aida), it would approximately measure 5 1/2" by 5 1/2" (14 by 14cm). Stitched with 2 pulled strands of floss, it would require approximately 1.5 skeins of DMC

You can stitch up your design any way you like: stitch it as a biscornu, a plain pincushion, or fold the edges in like an envelope and create a small pincushion - it's completely up to you!

If you share your stitching on Instagram, make sure to use the hashtag #ModernFolkEmbroidery, so we can connect that way and follow how we all interpret these designs!

Warmest wishes,

Jacob de Graaf
